'RONA PONDICK' Few contemporary artists have made sculpture of such Freudian ferocity as Rona Pondick. This exhibition surveys her work since 1992, from the raw, darkly comic images of infantile rage and hunger to the sleek, stainless-steel human/animal hybrids of recent years. Cranbrook Art Museum, Bloomfield Hills, Mich. Sept. 20-Nov. 30. (248) 645-3323. www.cranbrook.edu
