

THE VILLAGE VOICE

Edited by Vince Aletti

Choices

An Opinionated Survey of the Week's Events

May 1-7, 1991

Art

Rona Pondick: Her impressive suckling raft is the first thing you'll see on the Biennial's fourth floor. Catch this solo show too: the cortege of men's shoes unnerves, Sneaker dangles, the lumpy limbs and foot-pieces are pure malaprops, and it's hard to decide if the mounds of rosy mouths refer to Guston, Freud, or—as the artist claims—Renoir. "Foot & Mouth" is the show's title. Through May 4, fiction/nonfiction, 21 Mercer Street, 941-8611. (Levin)